DETAILED ACTION

Claim Rejections - 35 USC § 102

1. The following is a quotation of the appropriate paragraphs of 35 U.S.C. 102 that form the basis for the rejections under this section made in this Office action:

A person shall be entitled to a patent unless –

(b) the invention was patented or described in a printed publication in this or a foreign country or in public use or on sale in this country, more than one year prior to the date of application for patent in the United States.

2. Claims 1-4,7-12,14-18,21-25,27-31 are rejected under 35 U.S.C. 102(b) as being anticipated by Cardwell, III et al. 6,199,726.

Cardwell, III et al. disclose a manually manipulable actuator apparatus (col. 2, ll. 31-47), which comprises a body (32) having at least one wall element (96) having a length generally extending along a first axis and a height extending along a second axis orthogonal to the first axis as seen in Figure 2C, a manually manipulable element (22) having a button portion, at least one wing portion (94) extending outwardly from the button portion, wherein the manually manipulable element is movable along the first axis between a first position in which an operative element (62) is in a non-actuated condition and a second position in which the operative element is in an actuated condition (col. 7, ll. 41-67 onto col. 8, ll. 1-44), wherein the at least one wall element has a first height (100) at the first position and a different second height (102) at the second position, and wherein the at least one wall element cooperates with the at least one wing portion to constrain movement of the manually manipulable element along a third axis orthogonal to the first and second axes while the manually manipulable element is moved between the first and second positions as seen in Figures 4A and 4B, wherein the manually manipulable element is supported by the at least one wall element and movement of the manually manipulable element along the second axis is constrained by the at least one wall element (col. 7, ll. 41-67 onto col. 8, ll. 1-44), the second height is less than the first height as seen in Figure 4A, a spring element (76), the at least one wing portion comprises a generally L-shaped wing portion as seen in Figure 3).

Allowable Subject Matter

3. Claims 5-6, 13, 19-20, 26 are objected to as being dependent upon a rejected base claim, but would be allowable if rewritten in independent form including all of the limitations of the base claim and any intervening claims.

Conclusion

4. The prior art made of record and not relied upon is considered pertinent to applicant's disclosure. Miller et al. 5,875,934, Abplanalp 5,263,616, Gibilisco 5,207,657, Knickerbocker 4,426,026, Kay et al. 4,991,749 and Kay et al. 4,883,204 disclose other types of manually manipulable actuator.
